

SAVE THE DATE

Joint EBF-FBF Conference The Role of Banks as Tax Intermediaries, Reporting Financial Institutions and Tax Collectors

- Paris, 22 September 2014 -

The European Banking Federation and the French Banking Federation have the pleasure to invite you to the International Tax Conference they are jointly staging on the role of banks as tax intermediaries.

This conference will take place the day after the G20 discussion on the OECD package on Automatic Exchange of Information.

Topics to be covered include:

- The increasing role of banks as tax intermediaries
- Banks as reporting financial institutions
 - The case of new international reporting requirements: FATCA, IGAs, AEOI/CRS
- Banks as tax collectors
 - The case of the Financial Transaction Tax

HOW TO APPLY TO THE CONFERENCE ?

Please send us via email to EBF-taxacc@ebf-fbe.eu your application for the conference indicating your title (Mr/Ms), first name, last name, position, company, address, email address and phone number.

Given the limited number of seats, we will select participants based on criteria ensuring a balanced representation of stakeholders and countries. We will notify you of our acceptance by mid-July.
Registration will be confirmed as soon as your payment has been received.

EBF-FBF Tax Conference

General information:

Date:

22 September 2014

Registration:

9.00 am

Conference:

10.00 am – 5.30 pm

Venue:

French Banking Federation
18 Rue Lafayette - 75009 Paris

Language:

English

Participation fee:

100€ including lunch

An official invitation and line-up of speakers will follow shortly.

Contact:

EBF-taxacc@ebf-fbe.eu